

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

At Mitchel Hanlon Consulting we are dedicated to taking your project where it needs to go.

Long-term client relationships are critical to our success, and we are committed to working with you as a team, taking an active interest in your wider business goals and working to ensure we exceed project objectives. We pay particular attention to developing a real understanding of the needs of each client and the specific requirements of the project.

When you engage Mitchel Hanlon Consulting for your project management needs, you access a team of specialist personnel and management support systems.

We provide our clients' with specialist advisory services including project auditing, strategy development and due diligence. Our breadth of expertise enables us to act with confidence in matters vital to the ultimate success of the projects we manage.

To ensure efficiency and consistency our project methodology involves four main phases each contributing to the ultimate goal of on-time and on-budget project completion.

These phases are:

- Initiation
- Planning
- Execution and ongoing review
- Closure and Assessment

We offer an holistic view of your project with a fresh set of eyes, and an open mind to tackle any issues needing resolution. We work towards providing innovative suggestions and solutions and the objectivity required to develop an understanding of the projects' needs.

We make your job easier because we understand the issues you face.
